The National WWII Museum in New Orleans tells the story of the American experience in the war that changed the world. Spend the day walking through 4 buildings, each arranged around central themes of the war. Interactive features, oral histories, and personal vignettes will give you a meaningful perspective.

Day 1 - Friday, June 17 - New Orleans – Early morning departure from Zachary, Baton Rouge & Gonzales. Today will be a day for immersing yourself in the rich and deeply meaningful history of the National WWII Museum. Shortly after you arrive, enjoy an included viewing of the 4D film, Beyond All Boundaries, in addition to exploring the many other exhibits you’ll find, including “The Road to Berlin” and “The Road to Tokyo.” Enjoy lunch on your own at the restaurant or cafe on site.

Late this afternoon, we check into the Higgins Hotel and Conference Center, the official hotel of the National World War II Museum and one of the newest in New Orleans, offering 1930s-40s era-inspired guest rooms and suites, exceptional dining and beautiful decor. This evening, we’ll have an included dinner and attend the tribute show at BB’s Stage Door Canteen, honoring some of the best WWII songbirds including Betty Hutton, Doris Day, Dinah Shore and more.

Overnight at the Higgins Hotel.

Day 2 - Saturday, June 18- French Quarter/Home – This morning, after an included breakfast, enjoy an opportunity to explore the French Quarter for a couple of hours. Stop by Cafe DuMonde or Cafe Beignet for a traditional New Orleans treat, walk through Jackson Square, stop by St. Louis Cathedral and browse through antique shops and art galleries. We arrive home this afternoon.
