Key West

The word “key” comes from the Spanish word “Cayo” meaning “small island”. The southernmost city in the continental United States is one of the most colorful. Located only 90 miles from Havana, Cuba.

Home at various times to writers Ernest Hemingway, Tennessee Williams, Robert Frost and a favored retreat for presidents Truman, Eisenhower and Kennedy. Its sunsets are among the most popular of its many natural assets. Every night dozens of street vendors, performers and spectators gather about an hour before sunset at Mallory Square Dock in Old Towne off Duval Street.

Day 1, Saturday, Jan. 15– Lake City, FL – Early morning departure from Zachary and Baton Rouge. Pick-ups along I-12. Through Mobile to Lake City for overnight.

Day 2, Sunday, Jan. 16 - Titusville, FL – Morning guided tour of historic St. Augustine, the oldest continuously occupied European settlement in the U.S. Visit the Spanish fortress, the oldest masonry fort in the U.S., plus much more. Down the Atlantic coast to Daytona Beach and Daytona International Speedway. Overnight at Titusville.

Day 3, Monday, Jan. 17 - Homestead, FL – Today we visit the Kennedy Space Center, the launch site for the space shuttle. Enjoy a bus tour of the complex and the Visitor’s Center. Overnight in Homestead, Florida’s fruit and vegetable center.

Day 4, Tuesday, Jan. 18 - Key West, FL – Drive down the beautiful Florida Keys to Key West, our home for two nights. Our travel along this “broken necklace” chain of islands is 125 miles (1700 islands linked by 40 bridges, each island another charm on the necklace.) This late afternoon we gather with others at Mallory Square for sunset. Enjoy street entertainers, perhaps a visit to Margaritaville or Sloppy Joe’s for some of Key West’s unique cuisine (conch chowder, conch fritters or Key Lime Pie) and Key West’s spectacular sunset

Day 5, Wednesday, Jan. 19 – Key West – Morning sightseeing on the famous Conch Tour Train which takes us on a 14-mile tour through Old Town & Key West with interesting narration about the area’s history. Includes Duval Street, waterfront, & Southernmost Point. Your afternoon is free for shopping and independent activities. Perhaps a visit to Hemingway’s house and gardens and Harry S. Truman’s “Little White House”. Later this afternoon, we experience another beautiful sunset at Mallory Square.

Day 6, Thursday, Jan. 20- Sarasota, FL - Today’s focus is the Florida Everglades. Journey along the scenic Tamiami Trail. We enjoy an airboat excursion in the Everglades. Visit the Big Cypress Visitor Center, America’s first national preserve which is a habitat for alligators, birds and panthers.

Day 7, Friday, Jan. 21– Tallahassee, FL – We depart Sarasota with a stop in Tampa to visit the Manatee Viewing Center and see these gentle mammals. Continue our journey to Florida’s capital city, Tallahassee, for overnight.

Day 8, Saturday, Jan. 22 – Home – On our way home, we visit the National Museum of Naval Aviation if open. Then along Perdido Beach and Orange Beach until we reach home.
