Every spring thousands of visitors from around the world go out on the highways and byways of Texas to view the splendor of the blossoms of wild flowers. Indian Paintbrush (Castilleja spp), Black-eyed Susans (Rudbeckia hirta), Texas Bluebonnets (Lupinus texensis), and many other wildflowers dot the landscape. The primary flower, the main flower, the state flower of Texas, is the Texas bluebonnet.

Day 1 - Tuesday, April 5 - San Antonio – Early morning departure from Zachary and Baton Rouge. Take I-10 to San Antonio, with pickups along the way. Tonight, enjoy the Riverwalk and an included boat ride. Hotel near Riverwalk.

Day 2 - Wednesday, April 6 - Fredericksburg – This morning we tour the Alamo, the historic Spanish mission and fortress compound that was the site of the Battle of the Alamo in 1836. This afternoon, we enjoy a drive through the “Hill Country” to historic Fredericksburg for two nights.

Day 3 - Thursday, April 7 - Fredericksburg – Morning countryside visit includes view of Enchanted Rock, a massive dome of solid pink granite, the scenic Willow City Drive. Mid-day in Fredericksburg for lunch, sightseeing and shopping. Afternoon visit to the nation’s largest working wildflower farm. We visit Luckenbach, a tiny place known world-wide.

Day 4 - Friday, April 8 - Austin – Morning in Fredericksburg for shopping and a visit to their great World War II museum. Afternoon visit to the LBJ Ranch (President Lyndon Johnson) with a visit to the Texas Whitehouse. Tonight we enjoy an included dinner at the famous Salt Lick BBQ – nothing like it.

Day 5 - Saturday, April 9 - Schulenburg - La Grange - Home - We enjoy a guided tour of the historic Texas Painted Churches built in the late 1800s and early 1900s in the Schulenburg, Texas area where German and Czech immigrants settled to start a new life. With ordinary exteriors, the interiors of these churches are magnificent masterpieces featuring Old World beauty. Then we head towards home, arriving in Zachary late evening.
