Then we'll depart the Wasatch Mountains and drive north past the Great Salt Lake, Hill Air Force Base, and Utah's first settlement, Ogden. Soon we will enter Idaho and travel through the potato-producing fields. Continue north to the Island Park Region which is world famous for trout fishing on the Madison and Henry's Fork Rivers. After going over Targhee Pass we enter Montana and the town of West Yellowstone, the western gate of our nation's first national park.

Day 3, Monday, Feb. 13 – Yellowstone by Snow Coach - Today discover Yellowstone National Park, America's oldest and most famous national park, via private chartered snow coaches that provide a clear view, listening to the insights of our experienced Yellowstone guide. Enjoy a beautiful winter day at the base of the rugged Teton Mountains as we stop for lunch on our own. We'll then make our way just a couple miles north of Jackson to the National Elk Refuge, which is winter home for thousands of these majestic animals. We get a close up view as we take a horse drawn sleigh right into the massive herd on the Elk refuge. Our sleigh driver and guide and guide will explain how the settling of the Jackson Valley affected the elk herd migration and why the refuge plays an important role in their survival.
